LAUNCH OF "THE MOSAIC IDENTITY PROJECT" MOSAICFAMILIES.ORG ASSEMBLES THE PIECES OF DIVERSITY

[Chicago, November 14, 2017, 9:00am]

MosaicFamilies.org offers a new perspective on celebrating diversity. The word mosaic, typically used when referring to assembling ceramic pieces to create a complete picture, can be more broadly defined as a cohesive whole that is formed by combining diverse elements. MosaicFamilies.org launches a new project to embody this broader definition.

"The Mosaic Identity Project" will work with groups to create outstanding and evolving artwork for public display that builds and conveys community strength while embracing the many facets of diversity. Using a variety of art forms, individually created elements will be pieced together in cohesive form that will demonstrate themes such as identity, tolerance, struggle, inclusion, choice, acceptance, human rights and dignity.

This project will work with business, government, organization, alliance and educational entities. Participants will find value in group contributions and viewers will face tangible and symbolic reminders of the values and challenges of diverse identities.

Comprised of individuals of different races, gender identities, disabilities, biological backgrounds and ethnicities, Mosaicfamilies.org was founded in 2005. With previous group efforts geared toward community service activities, the group broadened scope to include it's "Bits & Pieces" blog and now launches "The Mosaic Identity Project". This group supports the motto "Strength in Diversity - Together in Service" and suggests the purpose of "Healing the world... one piece at a time"

In honor of Martin Luther King Jr. Day, the initial meeting for "The Mosaic Identity Project" will be held from 3-5pm on January 14, 2018 at the Winnetka Public Library, IL. Due to limited capacity, reservations are required; interested parties are invited to contact infomosaicfamilies@gmail.com.
